

2024 BURKES HILL EDEN VALLEY RIESLING

STORY

Our Burkes Hill vineyard in the Eden Valley has an almost spiritual sense of place. A Lutheran cross presides over the vines – symbolic of the faith held by many of the Barossa’s early European immigrants.

Equally as special is the mateship between our founder, Rob Gibson, and legendary Riesling winemaker, Andrew Wigan. The two share over 40 years each in winemaking in the Barossa. Rob is a dyed-in-the-wool red wine man, whereas Andrew, a specialist white wine maker, holds a particular pedigree in fine Riesling.

Burkes Hill Riesling is entrusted each year to Andrew, to capture the citrus purity and orange blossom aromatics in bottle. This is a style that is also capable of long-term ageing.

VINTAGE NOTES

The 2024 growing season featured cool to mild temperatures with significantly below-average rainfall. Despite a late start and slow budburst, the condensed harvest period was ideal, leading to good fruit expression.

TASTING NOTES

Colour: Very pale with green tints.

Aroma: Delicate aromas of citrus blossom, jasmine, and finger lime.

Palate: The delicate palate displays the purity of Eden Valley Riesling with intense flavours of grapefruit, lemon curd, and freshly squeezed limes, held together by the fresh and focussed mineral-like acidity that finishes with a long and chalky texture.
